

Handwritten notes and diagrams on the top row of posters, including a circular diagram with numbers and various text-based entries.

OKUGAWA IEYASU

- Three heroes
Tokugawa Ieyasu was one of the three heroes.
His leadership was amazing.
- The Edo bakufu is strong
He opened the Edo bakufu.
It was very strong.
- Very healthy
He lived a very healthy life.

First Emperor

Handwritten text describing the First Emperor, including a small illustration of a dinosaur.

HIGASHINO KEIGO

Handwritten text about Higashino Keigo, a Japanese author, with a drawing of an open book.

KABUKI YUI

Handwritten text about Kabuki Yui, featuring a collage of photos and drawings.

2年生廊下の
掲示物

わたしの人格メッセージ

DOTANI SHOHEI

Handwritten text about Dotani Shohei, a Japanese baseball player.

OHTANI SHOHEI

monster
A Junior High School student a ball
Speed of 130 Kilometers.
Led Japan to victory at NBC.
He must be an eight million dollars
player next year.
What can we learn from ohtani?
Enjoy the effort!!

Queen Kingo

She is a Japanese
Singer-songwriter.
She is the vocalist of the band "Tokyo Incidents".
She wrote a lot of songs
For example, Jazz, hip hop,
rock and roll and so on.
And she won many awards.
She was in a band
when she was a
junior high school student.
I learned it's important to try
many things from her.

Hoshi MACHO SUISEI

Handwritten text about Hoshi MACHO SUISEI, featuring a drawing of a girl in a blue dress.

HARUMICHI

Good at playing the Piano.
The organ, playing the Piano.
It's so attractive.
Take care of her fans.
She is always smiling to her fans.
Hard worker
She has studied for Piano since
she was Young.
What she taught me
You dream will come true unless you give up.

I love Odegaru

Handwritten text about Odegaru, featuring photos of the person.

INO TAMATAKA

Hard worker
He made a Map of Japan.
He walked all around Japan and surveyed for about 17 years.
Self study
He studied astronomy.
He learned calendar science
through self study.
Correct map
These maps are as correct as those of today. I thought that it's important to challenge anything.

HELEN ADAMS KELLER

A Hard Worker
She was an educator, social reformer, author who was born in the U.S. in 1880.
And "Triple pain"
She lost her sight and hearing in her childhood. And she couldn't speak well.
Competitive
But, she learned languages and manners
from the help of her teacher, Anne Sullivan.
A Great Educator
She continued to visit and travel around the world. She worked hard and encouraged many people.
What Can We Learn from Helen?
She said, "It's better to walk with a friend in darkness than to walk alone in the light." There is no need to fear of darkness as something negative and to stand up to it.

TOYOTOMI (1537-1598) HIDEYOSHI

What kind of person?
He is a Sengoku, Daimyo.
He made many rules.
Perfect rule
They took away our weapons from the poor
support to give a fight.
Perfect rule
They measured the size of the land across the country. The land across the country could then be known with precision.
Perfect rule
The system of "fukurokuji" clarified distinction of status. Bushi and farmer.
What did you learn from Hideyoshi?
I learned not just to make rules.

3年生廊下の
掲示物

